Mr. Clarence Field, of this place, and Miss Effie Ingram, of Star, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony in Star yesterday afternoon. The bride and groom came up on the Asheboro train this morning and are at the home of the groom's parents. We extend congratulations.

Died, Sunday at 1 o'clock, at the home of her children, on Thurston street, Mrs. Henry Horney. The funeral and burial services took place at Deep River today. The bereaved family and relatives have the sympathy of the entire community.

The Presbyterian church was crowded to its utmost last night to witness the entertainment given by the little folks of the Sunday School. There were two beautiful holly trees on each side of the rostrum loaded down with presents for the young folks, besides many other nice decorations which helped to make the church look beautiful. After an interesting program of recitations and songs the presents were distributed to the children after which the audience was dismissed.

The little "shouters" were made merry last evening at the Methodist church, the cause of their happiness being a free distribution of presents by the Sunday school of that church There were songs, recitations and speeches, but the most interest was manifested when a curtain was drawn aside and Santa Claus, with his reindeer and sled loaded with good things, was revealed to the sight of the little ones. Santa Claus, assisted by his two attendants, distributed the gifts to the members of the school. After the distribution of presents the doxology was sung and the benediction pronounced by the pastor. Then the remainder of the evening was spent in the church socially. We hope that this evening will long be remembered by the little ones.

Big German at Reidsville.

The opening reception of the Rockingham club was held in Reidsville last night, at the club rooms, which have recently been fitted up. A large number was present from Greensboro, Durham and Danville. From eight to eleven the reception was held, and at eleven o'clock a german was formed and at 12 o'clock the happy party went to the Piedmont Hotel where an elegant supper had been spread, after partaking very freely of the numerous things, dancing was then resumed at the club rooms which lasted until four a. m. There were about 250 people present. It was a most delightful occasion, a decided success in every respect, and will be pleasantly remembered by the participants.

An Elegant Spread

Yesterday it was the good fortune of a representative of the Evening Telegram to take Christmas dinner at Allen House. It was an elegant spread—but that is characteristic of the popular proprietor, Mr. W. B. Allen, not only at Christmas time, but all the year round. Mr. Allen is doing a good business here, the hotel is comparatively new but commands a good patronage, which is accounted for by the manner in which things are conducted.

FUSION ON A STATE TICKET,

Butler Thinks it Will be Easily Effected.

AND CLAIMS IT WILL BE ELECTED.

He Does Not Propose to be Killed by Running For the Presidency. Wants Re-election.

Special to the Telegram.

Washington, Dec. 26—Senator Butler, of North Carolina, did not go home for the holidays. As his family is in Washington he spent the Christmas season here, and will remain at the national capital until the opening of the session of congress.

Senator Butler in speaking of the political situation in the state the other day asserted that he has no idea of running for the governorship as has been proposed, but he will stand for re-election to the United States senate at the proper time. He is opposed to the adoption of the proposed constitutional amendment limiting suffrage, and he does not think it will be difficult for the republicans and populists of North Carolina to fuse next year on a state ticket. The senator believes that the amendment will be defeated at the polls, and that the fusion state ticket to be nominated will carry the state election. The senator has been mentioned as a probable populist candidate for the presidency, but he has not the slightest idea of allowing himself to be named. This information, it is fair to state, does not come from the senator himself, but from his friends who frequently come to Washington city.

As to national questions in which the south is interested, the senator speaks always cautiously. He is quoted as saying the other day in speaking of the nomination of Judge Ewart, whose nomination is now pending in the judiciary committee, that he will oppose confirmation as he has done heretofore. Senator Butler believes that Judge Ewart today is weaker before the United States senate than he was one year ago when his nomination was held up. To what extent the senator will carry his opposition to Ewart is not known.

The clerks at the executive mansion last Saturday were each presented with either a turkey or an appropriate present. It has been the custom of President and Mrs. McKinley since their residence at the white house every Christmas to present to the married attaches of the executive mansion a turkey, while to the single men a gift of some suitable character is presented. President and Mrs. McKinley spent the day quietly at the white house. The mansion, of course, was closed to visitors all day Christmas.

The executive departments were closed Saturday at noon, and were not reopened until this morning.

The trial of Benjamin Snell, formerly a clerk in the pension bureau, for the brutal murder of Lizzie Weisenberger, will take place early next month. The prisoner has secured among others for counsel, Representative Fleming, of Georgia, who is one of the best criminal lawyers in the house of representatives. Snell was himself formerly from Georgia. Congressman Fleming will have associated with him as counsel Mr. Charles L. Turner, of this city. It is understood that the defense made for Snell will be insanity.

Representative Crawford, with his family, spent Christmas very quietly in Washington. The North Carolina congressman is one of the most popular members of the delegation. He is thoroughly conversed with the needs of the state, and therefore makes a valuable representative.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of George Farrant, of this city to Miss Mollie Foster Debnam, of Greensboro, which takes place at the home of the bride to night. Several Washington people, it is said, will be present at the marriage. The couple will reside at Washington in the future.

Mrs. H. Zimmerman, formerly of Charlotte, who was married in Baltimore the other day, to Mr. Rimmerman, who is also from Charlotte, was registered with her husband at the Metropolitan Hotel last week.

Representative Bellamy, of North Carolina, spent Christmas day at his home. Congressman Small also spent the holiday at his home. Both congressmen will remain in North Carolina until after the Christmas holidays.

Postoffice at Alspaugh, Forsyth county, will be discontinued by order of the postoffice department. Mail will be sent to Oldtown. This takes effect from and after December 30th.

Alonza G. Roberts has been commissioned postmaster at Moscow, North Carolina.

I. M. Scott and Scott Reynolds, of Greensboro, are at the Metropolitan Hotel for a few days.

Thomas D. Sherwood, of Greensboro, is registered at the Metropolitan.

Recommends Early Graduation.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Dec. 26—General Mills has recommended that the present senior class at West Point be graduated on Feb 15th, as was done last year, to fill many vacancies in the army. The report that General Corbin is opposed to this step is discredited, as he favored it last year, and the need for it now is as great as it was then

ACCIDENTAL KILLING.

John Jeffries Killed by Grant Russell Yesterday.

A tragedy, which is claimed to have been purely accidental, was enacted in this city yesterday morning in which Grant Russell shot and killed John Jeffries. Both are colored.

It seems that Jeffries went to Russell's home on Cole street, early in the morning before the latter had gotten out of bed and began joking with him about sleeping so late. Russell then reached for an old pistol, which he pointed at Jeffries and fired, the ball taking deadly effect. Jeffries lived only a short while.

Russell claims that he didn't know the pistol was loaded. So far as our information goes there is no cause for believing the shooting was not accidental. The men were said to be good friends.

KILLED AT A FROLIC.

Another tragedy was enacted at a colored frolic east of town, near Holt's Chapel, last night, in which Chas. Toms was shot and killed. It is supposed the fatal shot was fired by Will Dick. Liquor was at the bottom of it, as usual. It is said to have been a drunken brawl.

Oscar Dick, another negro, was shot through the hand some time in the day yesterday while "celebratin'."

CHRISTMAS EXERCISES

The Centenary Sunday School Spends a Pleasant Evening.

Last evening was a highly enjoyable one with the members of Centenary Sunday school. An interesting program had been arranged and was carried out in a creditable manner. It consisted in Christmas anthems, songs and recitations, the children taking part.

After the formal program was rendered the little fellows, boys and girls, were presented with a "treat," basket of candy and oranges. These festive occasions are entertaining to the older folks and encouraging and pleasing to the children. The other schools in the city also, had elaborate Christmas entertainments.

BOTH DANGEROUSLY WOUNDED.

Destruction of Colenso Bridge was a Necessity.

By Cable to the Telegram

Pietermaritzburg, Dec. 19—A correspondent visited the hospital today, which is situated on high ground above the town. Col. Long and Maj. Balford are doing as well as could be expected, though both are dangerously wounded. No bullet has yet been extracted from Col. Long's body and it is thought it passed clear through. There is reasonable hope for his recovery.

The destruction of the Colenso bridge was necessary to prevent the Boers from bringing their artillery across.

Messages from the front now take two days in transmission.

HIS LAST MISSION.

Mosby's Famous Scout Passes Over the River.

Washington, Dec. 25—Bushrod Underwood, one of Mosby's most noted scouts, died in this city today, aged 56 years. During the rebellion he kept near General Lee for months at a time and by him engaged for many hazardous missions, being especially recommended for the service by Gen. Mosby. The funeral services will be conducted here Tuesday afternoon and the interment will be made of the remains at Middleburg, Va., on Wednesday, by the local camp of Confederate veterans.

PORTSMOUTH JAIL DELIVERY.

Murderers Under Death Sentence Escape—To Hang Jan. 19.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

Norfolk, Va., Dec. 29—Walter Cotton, a negro, and three murderers confined in the Portsmouth jail, under sentence to hang January 19, for the murder of Charles Wyatt, white, escaped at 4:30 o'clock this morning. A general alarm has been sent to the adjacent states and bloodhounds will track the murderers.

White, the death watch, was dozing in front of the murderers' cell, and Cotton quietly unlocked the door, walked past the watch and jumped out of a window, the bars of which had been sawed, and escaped. Cotton was originally from North Carolina. It is supposed he had outside assistance.

TUESDAY, DEC. 26, 1899.

We hope our readers, one and all, have had a very merry Christmas and that they are on the verge of the happiest New Year they have ever seen.

What resolutions have you to make for 1900? and how have you kept those made for 1899? Was your success an encouragement for resolving to do greater things during the coming year?

What do you think of the idea of building a hospital in Greensboro? It is a good time now, while thinking of what we can do in 1900 to further the interests of Greensboro to resolve that among the improvements for the coming year there shall be built and equipped a first-class modern hospital.

This street preaching business in front of the dispensary has become to be an almost intolerable nuisance. Wonder how much that fellow Moore gets for his services in trying to annoy the dispensary people? People have little respect for the preaching of a man with the character and reputation this man has, anyway.

Many promises are made only to be broken. It were better not to make a promise than to make it without a probability of its fulfilment and a strong determination that it shall be done. This is a good thought to take along when forming New Year resolutions. It is about as bad to break a promise made to yourself as it is one to anyone else. One of the first duties in life to be true to one's self.

IN HONOR OF BRYAN.

Texans Prepare Something of a Novelty in the Reception Line.

Austin, Texas, Dec. 25—The panther and lion hunt which will take place in this county next Wednesday in honor of Bryan promisis to be the largest and most exciting sporting event of its kind ever pulled off in Texas. Over two hundred hounds will participate in the chase, and packs are already arriving here from all parts of the state. Invitations have been issued to over one hundred people, including all state officials. Bryan will be given the position of honor and will lead the chase. The country along the Colorado river, north of Austin, is exceedingly rough, and various daring panthers and Mexican lions have become so numerous in that section as to demand immediate extermination. These animals have killed many fat calves and sheep for the farmers and ranchers. When hungry they do not hesitate to attack a man. They are full of fight when cornered and the hunt will not lack for exciting features. Ex-Governor Hogg, who weighs over 350 pounds, will ride a horse and try to keep up with Bryan in the chase.

DEATH OF ROBERT HETSER.

Waylaid, Robbed and Shot Near Rocky Mount.

Rocky Mount, Dec. 26—Robert Hester, who was shot and robbed by John Taylor and Robert Fortune, died at his home about three miles from here at 10 o'clock this morning from the effects of the wounds. Taylor and Fortune, by order of Judge Dorsey Battle, was carried to Wake county jail for safe keeping.

Mr. Hester was a successful farmer, universally respected, and leaves a wife and six children.

Two Points of View.

A farmer drifted into a hardware store at Mulhall and was asked by the manager: "Don't you want to buy a bicycle to ride around your farm on? They're cheap now. Can give you one for $35.

"I'd sooner put $35 into a cow," said the farmer.

"But think," said the manager, 'how foolish you would look riding around town on a cow."

"Oh, I don't know" said the farmer; "no more foolish, perhaps, than I would milking a bicycle."

Glorious News.

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist. Guaranteed.

A FAITHLESS LOVER

Steals North Carolina Maiden's Money and Deserts Her.

A Suffolk special to the Richmond Dispatch says:

"Abandoned by her lover and shorn of her cash and jewelry, Miss Annie Brown, an unsophisticated North Carolina maiden, was this afternoon deposited in Suffolk without friends, cash or other resources. Norfolk & Carolina Railroad officials pledged themselves for Miss Brown's accommodation at a hotel until something can be done for further relief.

Miss Brown met Frank Flynn twelve months ago at Bowden, N. C. Flyn operated a lumber plant near that point. Acquaintance ripened into a more tender passion, and Flynn sought Annie's hand in marriage. The girl's relatives opposed the match and they agreed to elope.

Suffolk was selected as the nuptial place and the couple left home today with tickets for this town. While en route Flynn induced Annie to let him have her pocketbook containing $25 and a watch and ring.

At Tunis the train met a southbound express. Flynn shook his prospective bride, and before she missed him steam was carrying them apart at the rate of sixty miles an hour. Telegrams were exchanged between the train conductors The south-going captain wired that Flynn was aboard, was O. K., and referred to the girl as Mrs. Flynn.

Annie Brown denied that they had been married. Tears came in Annie's eyes as she told of her desertion and the loss of her valuables. She wanted to have her pretended lover arrested.

A SURE CURE FOR CROUP.

Twenty-five Years' Constant Use Without a Failure.

The first indication of croup is hoarseness, and in a child subject to that disease it may be taken as a sure sign of the approach of an attack. Following this hoarseness is a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears 't will prevent the attack. It is used in many thousands of homes in this broad land and never disappoints the anxious mothers. We have yet to learn of a single instance in which it has not proved effectual. No other preparation can show such a record—twenty-five years' constant use without a failure. For sale by C. E. Holton, druggist.

FOUR MORE BODIES FOUND.

The Order to Dispense With Safety Lamps.

Brownsville, Pa., Dec. 25—Search for bodies of the dead in the Brasenell mine still goes on. Four more bodies have been recovered but not identified.

The mine officials admit that two or more bodies are still in the mine, but representatives of the Slavonic Society have made a house to house canvass and report that eight of their number alone are in the wreck and how many others they do not know.

That naked lights and unlocked safety lamps were used in a dangerous mine was officially confirmed today by Pit Boss Thomas Jones, who made a statement which forms the most sensational chapter of the management of the mine which has yet developed. Mr. Jones was asked if it was true that on last Tuesday morning he issued a general order that the miners could dispense with safety lamps. "Yes, sir," was the reply.

"I considered that the mine was safe, as the 'break through' had been fixed up."

"Safety lamps were used before Tuesday?"

"Yes."

"Is it true that some safety lamps in use in the mine were not locked?"

"Yes, it is true that some were not locked because I thought the men who used them were competent to carry them unlocked."

Was that not contrary to the regulations?"

"Oh, there may be a regulations, but men sometimes carry unlocked lamps where it is known that they are experienced miners."

Mine Superintendent Boyer, when informed of the statemest made by Pit Boss Jones, said:

"I know nothing of the order issued on Tuesday, but consider Jones a capable man, who knows his business, and I suppose he used his judgment."

A. S. Brasenell, manager of the mine, said:

"I know nothing of such an order. I have no part in the direct management of the mine, as our pit officials are the responsible parties. The company has no statement to make."

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1125 Howard st., Philadelphi, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this Royal Cure—"it soon removed the pain in my chest, and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the Universe." So will every one who tries Dr. Kings' New Discovery for any trouble of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50c. and $1. MAINE VICTIMS ARRIVE.

Texas Lands at Newport News With the Remains on Board.

Newport News, Dec. 25—The battleship Texas arrived from Havana this morning with the remains of the Maine victims. She had a rough voyage. The bodies will be sent to Washington tomorrow on a special train for interment at Arlington. There will be a large turnout of citizens tomorrow when the bodies are brought ashore and the transfer will be conducted with appropriate ceremonies. Veterans of the war with Spain will escort the remains from the landing place to the funeral train. The Newport News Light Infantry and city officials will also attend the ceremonies. Captain Sigsbee has agreed to co-operate with the citizens in making the transfer of bodies a state occasion. Coffins containing the bodies are arranged in piles on the after deck of the Texas and each pile covered with an American flag. A squad of marines guard the coffins and no one is allowed to approach unless accompanied by an officer.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver; of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows; "I was in a most dreadful condition tion. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides; no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters: and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

WINE OF CARDUI

WOMEN WHO WORK.

ST. LOUIS, MO., Aug. 12.
Though only 19 years old, I suffered from pains and female troubles two years. Last spring I got so bad I had to quit work. I had to support myself, and could not afford a high-priced doctor. I got one bottle of Wine of Cardui and that made me feel better. Have now used several bottles and am well. My mother used the Wine for Change of Life and was greatly relieved.
MISS MARGARET WALSH.

McELREE'S
Wine of Cardui

Many girls and women find it necessary to earn their own living in various kinds of employment. Their work is often so hard and confining that the health breaks down. Their delicate constitutions are unfitted for tiresome tasks. Weakness nearly always makes its appearance in the peculiarly delicate womanly organs. Constant standing on the feet, and coming and going at the beck of a superintendent or foreman, induces falling of the womb, leucorrhœa, headache and backache. The pay of women workers is often so notoriously small that when sickness comes they have no money to engage skillful physicians. To them Wine of Cardui is truly a blessing. It cures them of their ills at a small cost, and they can act as their own physicians. No doctor can do as much for "female troubles" as Wine of Cardui.

A Frightful Blunder

Will often cause a horrible burn, scald, cut or bruise. Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the best in the world, will kill the pain and promptly heal it. Cures old sores, fever sores, ulcers, boils, felons, corns, all skin eruptions. Best pile cure on earth. Only 25 cts. a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist.

Even the most superstitious girl wouldn't object to getting thirteen Christmas presents.

Harduppe—"Alas! all flesh is grass." Wigwag—"And that, I suppose, is an excuse for your seedy appearance."

Every farmer knows that to kill weeds he must go to the roots. To cut the weed off on the surface, means that the weed is still left to grow. It's just that way with boils, ulcers, eruptions, pimples and similar diseases of the flesh. To cure them you must go to the roots, down into the blood. Mere surface treatment never gets rid of the disease. It will come back at the first opportunity.

It is to its wonderful power in the purification of the blood that Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery owes many of its triumphs of healing. It cleanses the blood thoroughly, eliminating all the refuse matter and clears out the waste and poisonous particles which clog the body and so foul the flesh. It eradicates from the blood the conditions which make disease possible. The result is that diseases die out like fires that are unfed.

There is no medicine for the blood which is "just as good" as "Golden Medical Discovery." Accept no substitute.

"I feel it my duty to write to you of the wonderful curative powers of your 'Golden Medical Discovery,'" writes Geo. S. Henderson, Esq., of Dennud, Lee Co., Florida. "I had a bad bruise on my right ear, and my blood was badly out of order. I tried local doctors but with no good results. Finally, I wrote you the particulars in my case, and you advised your 'Golden Medical Discovery,' which I began to take. From the first bottle I began to feel better, and when I had taken eight bottles the sore was healed up. I wish you success."

Free. On receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only, Doctor Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1008 pages, paper-bound, will be sent free. For cloth binding send 31 stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

BLOODY FIGHT AT VIRGILINA.

One Man Dead and Two Probably Mortally Wounded.

Richmond, Va., Dec. 25.—News reached here of a serious situation at Virgilina, Halifax county. Particulars are meagre, as the telegraph operator is badly, perhaps fatally, wounded.

It is stated that one Loftus entered the depot and fired several times at Turner, the operator, when Turner returned the fire and killed his man. Friends of the dead man attacked Turner, a general fight followed, and Turner received a terrible gash in the throat, while several other men, two of whom will probably die, were wounded.

At last accounts a mob was threatening to lynch Turner, but he was being guarded in the depot by armed friends.

All the parties are, it is said, white. The sheriff has gone to the scene.

DEATH OFF HATTERAS.

Stranding of the Ariosto—Twenty One Drowned.

Cape Henry, Va., Dec. 25—The weather bureau official at Hatteras, N. C., reports that the British steamship Ariosto, Bernes, from Galveston to Norfolk for coal, and thence to Hamburg, loaded with cotton, corn, wheat, and meal, stranded on Ocracoke beach, six miles south of the Hatteras weather bureau office, at 4 o'clock this morning. The steamer carried a crew of thirty men. Twenty-one men abandoned the steamer and took to the boats soon after she stranded. The boats were wrecked in the heavy seas and the entire twenty-one drowned. Captain Bernes and the remaining eight men were taken from the ship today by Captain James Howard and crew of the Ocracoke life saving station. The rescue was effected with difficulty, owing to the heavy sea, the landing taking up almost the entire day.

Capt Bernes and the eight surviving members of the crew are now being cared for at the Ocracoke Life Saving station. Some water is making in the hold of the vessel, but she is still in good condition and probably can be saved if prompt assistance is rendered.

LIST OF THE SAVED.

Cape Henry, Va., Dec. 25—The Weather Bureau official at Hatteras furnishes the following list of those saved from the wreck of the steamship Ariosto:

Captain Baines, Warren, Reed, Pettoner, Anderson, Saline, Helsing, Pettersen and Henroth.

The Merritt and Chapman steamer Rescue passed out of the capes last night on her ways to the Ariosto.

C. E. Holton, druggist, guarantees every bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and will refund the money to any one who is not satisfied after using two-thirds of the contents. This is the best remedy in the world for la grippe, coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough and is pleasant and safe to take. It prevents any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia.

It seems strange that the person who never comes to the point should be the greatest bore.

Our Confederate Dead.

To the Julian S. Carr Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy:

They fell 'mid the smoke of the terrible charge,
While death was his swift strokes dealing,
And received at his hand their final discharge,
While the shouts of the victors were pealing.

No column of brass, their deeds to proclaim,
Rises o'er them to tell strangers the story,
How they fought, how they fell, and nothing to name them
As martyrs to freedom and glory.

No county preserves their dead ashes to keep
In its heart as its richest treasure;
But alone, neglected, forgotten, they sleep
In the land that they loved without measure.

For the cause that they loved is silent and dead,
And its armies, like mist on a river,
Are scattered and gone from the land where they bled,
And furled it banner forever.

But the wild flowers bloom where they rest with their God,
And the stars are silent watch keeping;
While angels weep dew drops at night on the sod
Where these unknown heroes are sleeping.

—S. R. H. in Chapel Hill News.

THEY WERE GOOD.

The Original Nashville Students in Minstrelsy.

The original Nashville students and and Gideon's Minstrels, which appeared at the opera house in matinee and night performance yesterday, is a really meritorious organization, entitled to more credit for a clean, bright, original performance than many of the more pretentious minstrelsy aggregations. There is nothing course or vulgar in the performance, the jokes have the virtue of being post-diluvian, without any of the pre-Adamite staleness of flavor.

The acrobatic features are all good. The company made a good impression here.—Chattanooga Daily Times (Dec 20.).

The above aggregation will present a performance at the Academy of Music tonight.

The Burning Question

Of to-day is: Where will my dollars do double duty? And not: Where is Aguinaldo, the insurgent leader, or how about the war between the English and Dutch? And when will Otis wind up the Philippine campaign, or what do you think of Roberts, the Representative from Utah? All of these questions sink into insignificance when compared to the burning question of: Where can money be saved in buying goods? This is easily answered by dealing at.
